

Consuming Creation

Climate Change and the Call to Transformation

Michael Northcott is Professor of Ethics in the Divinity School at the University of Edinburgh.

Professor Northcott's research focuses on the interface between theological ethics and the human and natural sciences, the ethics of technology and work, the theological and ethical implications of humanly caused species extinction, the ethics and politics of climate change, and the ethics of political economy.

with Michael Northcott

Friday & Saturday
March 4-5, 2011

Friday night Dinner & Saturday Conference
$110 full ($ 90 concession)
Early bird discount

For more information visit www.ethos.org.au

Ridley College
170 The Avenue
Parkville VIC

If you are interested in running a workshop, contact Mick Pope:
polymath@optusnet.com.au

REGISTER BELOW OR ON-LINE

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Tick Selection

Dinner: Friday March 4th:
6:30pm for 7:00pm meal
$50 incl. non-alcoholic beverage (BYO alcohol)
(Deadline: February 25th)

Conference: Saturday March 5th: 9:00am - 5:30pm
Registration 9:00am
Worship & 1st keynote address begins 9:15am
Day finishes at 5:30pm
$60 full (incl. coffees & bag lunch)
$40 concession
- f/t students, pensions health cards

Dinner & Conference
$110 full (early bird $100 by February 11th)
$90 concession

Vegetarian meal please

Payment

Visa / Mastercard / American Express (circle one)

Expiry date: ___ / ___

Do you require a receipt?

Yes No

I would like to know more about

Ethos
 Zadok Perspectives and Papers

Send to EA, PO Box 175, Box Hill VIC 3128