VOICES FOR JUSTICE 09

As our world groans under the weight of a financial crisis, we must remember that it's the poorest of the poor who will be hit hardest. A further 46 million people are expected to slip into absolute poverty as a result. The Bible calls us to challenge unjust structures which keep people in poverty, and in Australia we have unique opportunities to speak to our nation's leaders.

Australia has committed to the Millennium Development Goals, to halve world poverty by 2015. But as this date looms closer, Australia is yet to contribute its fair share. We invite people of all ages and levels of experience to come share this message clearly and positively with our leaders.

Voices for Justice is four days of worship, prayer, advocacy training, workshops, biblical teaching and lobbying. Join us in Canberra as we creatively engage with politicians at Parliament House to bring God's heart for justice for the poor to their attention.

Speakers include:

- Tim Costello (CEO World Vision and Co-Chair of Make Poverty History)
- Lyn Lusi (Founder of HEAL Africa Fistula Hospital, DR Congo)

Also Featuring:

- Political Forums and events at Parliament House
- Meetings with your MP and a Senator from your state
- Presentation of thousands of Offering of Letters from around Australia at Parliament House
- A special youth program for under 18s

Places are limited - we can only accept 250 delegates, so get in early. Find out more and apply online at www.micahchallenge.org.au before 7 August 2009.
